

ETHICAL CODE OF THE COMPANY

Our company is openly committed to values that guarantee the compliance of all areas of our work with the principles of social responsibility.

In the area of meeting legal requirements, we respect the legal code of the Czech Republic and the legislative requirements of the EU, we comply with all technical requirements for our production and we consistently fulfil business obligations.

In the environmental area, we behave in such a manner, which ensures that the production processes used by our company are friendly to the environment and the health of our employees. The materials used for the production of our products come from sources verified by us and we subject them to testing, in order to guarantee their safety. It is a matter of course for us that we do not use materials from unethical animal sources and that our materials are not tested on animals.

In the area of human rights, we strictly take heed of their observance and we strictly observe all the requirements of the legal code. In our company, we do not tolerate discrimination against persons caused by any reason.

In the area of our supply chain management, we verify facts that could be in conflict with the ethical principles of our company during regular audits. We enter into business agreements exclusively with suppliers, who respect the ethical principles, to which our company adheres.

The warranties provided by our company also include the fact that the products marked with the OCUN trademark have been manufactured in accordance with the ethical principles professed by our company.
